

Flowers for Freedom in Tibet

Lay down flowers in front of the gates of Chinese missions and embassies throughout the world and continue to do so until the end of the 2008 Olympic Games in Beijing !

This peaceful action protests against the extermination of the Tibetan population which has been going on for 50 years !

